Sentosa Grillfest – a Singapore Food Festival 2018 (SFF 2018) event

This July, indulge in the second edition of Sentosa Grillfest, Singapore's only food street by the beach! Returning bigger and better from 13 - 29 July, Sentosa GrillFest will see Siloso Beach transformed into a unique, 1km-long night food street every Friday to Sunday, with almost double the number of outlets and a greater variety of both local and international cuisines compared to last year, pairing delicious eats with live entertainment.

Featuring 21 food and beverage (F&B) establishments from within and beyond Sentosa, guests can take their pick from over 100 food and drink options as they take a stroll and enjoy the sea breeze under the stars.

From salted egg yolk chicken and waffles to laksa mentai soft shell crab rice bowls, this year's edition will see exciting new elements that bring out the uniqueness of Singapore's food culture, while showcasing new and up-and-coming talents in our local food scene. Look out for:

- Fresh offerings from second-generation hawkers and young hawkerpreneurs, who will give a new twist to familiar local delights and other well-loved cuisines.
- ITE School of Hospitality showcase, where culinary talents of tomorrow take centre stage as they display the skills they have gained during their course of study (only available from 13-15 July).
- Collaboration with ANGLISS for the first Sentosa Grillfest Festival Gourmet Market, where guests can enjoy curating their own gastronomical experience. Simply pick your raw ingredients of choice from the market, before handing them over to chefs onsite for preparation!

For those who prefer something a little more conventional, savour familiar local favourites like hokkien mee, char kway teow and satay. Other all-time favourite food options available include ribeye steak, burgers and Japanese rice bowls.

It's not all just food, however. Sentosa Grillfest also promises to be a unique gastronomic experience with good music and company, as guests bask in an ambience of festivity with fairy lights, live bands, and roaming entertainers, with local acts like The JumpStart, Pam Khi & The One Boy Band, and AnchorBlanc, as well as stilt-walkers and percussionists serenading guests all night.

Sentosa "Kaki" BBQ

From 8 – 12 August, celebrate National Day at the inaugural Sentosa "Kaki" BBQ, a play on the colloquial term that refers to "friends" in Singlish and "on my own" in the Hokkien dialect.

An easy beach barbecue featuring outdoor movie screenings by Palawan Beach, Sentosa "Kaki" BBQ will offer food that is already marinated and seasoned for cooking, next to communal barbecue pits and spacious dining areas at Palawan Green. All barbecue-goers have to do is to cook their food over light conversation, and have their dinner set against a sunset by the beach! For those who prefer to let the professionals do the work, chefs will also be on hand to assist in the barbecuing.

In the spirit of National Day, guests will even be able to catch the National Day flypast right here on Sentosa while enjoying barbecued treats! It will be a different way to celebrate the nation's birthday, so be sure to bring your loved ones down to Sentosa "Kaki" BBQ for a night of bonding over a diverse spread of barbecued delights!

Plus, apart from unique experiences at Sentosa GrillFest and Sentosa "Kaki" BBQ, guests can also treat themselves to delectable dining delights at more than 120 F&B outlets in and around The State of Fun. Treats include a durian buffet at Le Méridien Singapore, Sentosa, to exclusive MasterCard® discounts at Brewerkz Sentosa Boardwalk and Dusk Restaurant & Bar at Faber Peak Singapore.

With the exciting food offerings in Sentosa, The State of Fun is the place to be for food lovers, family, and "kakis" looking for great dining experiences. For more information, please visit <https://www.sentosa.com.sg/feast>.
